HISTORY (HI)

A major in history promotes critical thinking, analysis of data and communication skills. It provides excellent preparation for careers in academic and professional fields such as law, business, journalism, and government. Majors work closely with the history faculty to develop a coherent program.

IMPORTANT NOTICE! Students are responsible for understanding all university policies, procedures, and requirements. Such information can be found in the Undergraduate Course Catalogue, Registrar's website, and the Student Handbook. Please be aware that overall and major averages must be at least 2.000 for graduation. This information is to help the student in monitoring progress toward the degree. Responsibility for meeting all degree requirements rests with the student.

1. Placement in this course is determined by the English and Media Studies department.
  2. Requirement may be fulfilled with any LIT/CIN/EMS or MLCH 403, MLFR 304, MLIT 304, MLIT 305, MLSP 306, 307, 404, or 405. Certain topics/titles of MLCH 402 or MLSP 301 may also apply.
  3. Math sequence consists of either MA 123 and MA 126 or MA 131 and MA 139, depending upon departmental placement.
  4. Elective guidelines are available on the Registrar's website.
  5. You are strongly urged to meet with the department chair on a regular basis, particularly before you register for your HI major requirements. Some courses may be used to fulfill more than one requirement, in turn providing room for additional electives.
  - 5a. At least 4 history courses must be in a given concentration (regional, thematic). At least two of these courses must be 300 level.
  - 5b. At least one course must be in non-Western history. If a student's area is non-Western history, than at least one course must be in Western history.
  6. Bachelor of Arts students must complete two semesters of the same modern language, regardless of proficiency levels. Credits earned from AP classes and other institutions approved by Bentley (including abroad) will be considered. Courses in this section not used to complete the modern language requirement must be arts and science electives. You must meet with the chair of the Modern Languages to discuss your language proficiency and your required coursework.
- Field of regional concentrations are: American, European, Asian, Latin American/Caribbean or in a thematic area in history such as economic history, social history or war and society (at least two courses need to be 300 level).
- HI majors must complete either a Business Studies Major or Business Studies minor.
- BA students may take no more than 30 credits of business courses, including the courses from the Business Studies Major or minor.
