

Allison B. Bruno

Allison B. Bruno is a dynamic and results-driven risk and compliance professional with extensive experience across the three lines of defense. Known for being a competent and collaborative leader, Allison enables firms to build and retain their position in the global economy as trusted financial institutions, supporting the achievement of their business objectives.

Currently, Allison serves as the Managing Director of Corporate Compliance at State Street Corporation, where has been since 2014. In her role as Head of Conduct Risk and Corporate Compliance Governance, Allison leads a global team in the assessment and management of regulatory risks primarily associated with conflicts of interest, insider trading, and whistleblowing. She is also responsible for the Global Standard of Conduct and related training for over 55,000 employees worldwide.

Previously, Allison held various senior positions at State Street, including Head of Financial Crimes Compliance Program Governance and Oversight as well as Global Head of Alternative Investment Solutions Compliance.

Before joining State Street, Allison was the Senior Vice President of Consumer Operations Risk Management at RBS Citizens Financial Group, where she provided ongoing operational risk and regulatory support for the Consumer Operations business.

Allison held significant roles at Talbots, spending most of her time in Internal Audit, where she ultimately served as the Head of Internal Audit. She also briefly served as the Director of Financial Planning for the Stores Organization.

Allison began her career at Ernst & Young, LLP, where she spent five years within the Audit and Advisory practice primarily supporting financial services clients.

Allison holds a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Fairfield University and is a Certified Public Accountant (inactive) and a Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialist. She is also a graduate of the 2024 KPMG Executive Leadership Institute for Women Program.