RECESSION
CITATION FOR HONORARY DEGREE

JOSEPH E. PRESTON
President and Chief Executive Officer, New Balance
Doctor of Commercial Science

Joe Preston, skilled leader in global retail, champion of sports, fervent believer in community, we are proud to confer upon you today the honorary degree Doctor of Commercial Science.

Your understanding of global retail and manufacturing is notable and impressive. In nearly 30 years at New Balance, the last six as president and CEO, you have found success by leveraging innovation and insights about consumers to drive growth in challenging times. Through it all, you’ve stayed true to New Balance’s values including supporting its associates and local communities, focusing on domestic manufacturing and employing sustainable practices. Good business is your practice and your promise — an emphasis we at Bentley keenly understand.

Never have you forgotten the importance of the people behind the products. In 2023, under your leadership, New Balance reported a 23% increase in worldwide sales from the previous year. That’s an impressive number, but so are these: You have said that during a time of transition, you had 60 one-on-one conversations with employees across the company and met with 250 more in small groups to listen and learn what employees needed.

That commitment to community is noteworthy and rare, and it extends beyond your workforce. You serve as chair of the Board of Trustees of The Sports Museum and on the boards of the American Apparel & Footwear Association and Retail Industry Leaders Association. You also serve as chair of the Two Ten Footwear Foundation and vice chair of the Massachusetts Business Roundtable. For you, service and collaboration are more than buzzwords.

Today we offer our deep admiration for all that you have accomplished in the realm of retail and sports, and for your continued commitment to bettering the world around you by building community and conducting good business.

Therefore, by virtue of the authority vested by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and by the Bentley University Board of Trustees, we confer upon you, Joseph E. Preston, the degree of Doctor of Commercial Science, honoris causa. We hold it both a pleasure and an honor to do so.

E. LaBrent Chritle, PhD
President

J. Paul Condrin III ’83, P ’19 ’22
